THE SCHOOL OF TWO HEARTS

difference

Our Mission

At The School of Two Hearts, we want to ensure students get a quality education where they can feel competent, know they are loved, have a sense of purpose, and learn about our beautiful Catholic faith.

Our Vision

If one's self-concept develops and grows in the context of loving God and serving others, we will have a ripple effect throughout our world. Every child will be a light – a beacon who can impact others as they were impacted.

Words from the Heart: Parent Testimonials

My family and I have enjoyed our first year at The Two Hearts Co-Op for a variety of reasons. My children are able to enjoy engaging, educational content while I take a break from homeschooling them during the week. They are also challenged spiritually which helps cultivate rich and important dialogues about faith. The boys are exposed to church history and holidays which has given them a greater appreciation for the legacy of faith they are apart of. They also enjoy the rhythms and expectations of a school environment with the support of kind and thoughtful teachers. As the director, Mrs. Suchyna does her utmost to cultivate a culture of safety, responsibility, accountability and fun!

- Colleen, parent of students in Grades K, 5 & 9

We love The School of Two Hearts! It has been the best opportunity for my boys. As a business owner and working mother who homeschools two busy boys, The School of Two Hearts has been such a blessing, a huge help! My boys have learned so much in their curriculum-based class days as well as the extra "real life" classes. They love baking and photography classes. The boys have also attended church two days each week where they have learned the Bible and their prayers. We will forever be part of The School of Two Hearts.

- Colby, parent of students in Grades 1 & 3

My daughter had attended public school her whole life. We transitioned to homeschool part way through her year in sixth grade and we couldn't be happier! I am so grateful for the help and support The School of Two Hearts gave to us during that transition. My child is so much happier and there is a new joy in her now that she is attending The School of Two Hearts. She has grown academically and spiritually and enjoys that her faith is integrated into her day. I am forever grateful for this co-op. My daughter says making the transition was the hardest but best decision she has ever made.

- Katie, parent of Grade 6 student

The School of Two Hearts has been a true blessing to our family and our peace-of-mind. When our twins reached middle school age, we desired assistance with science labs and art, our most difficult subjects at home, and socializing with peers, but we did not want a politicized school environment laden with hostility and confusion for our kids. We wanted our girls to learn the faith and be in a safe and wholesome learning environment. The School of Two Hearts has provided this, in addition to providing diverse subjects that fit our family perfectly. They are receiving a well-rounded education through the wonderful teachers at the school who are invested in our children's learning and care.

- Caroline, parent of Grade 6 students
